Welcome to the ZTalent October 14th Newsletter! We’ve got exciting updates for you, including an in-depth look at one of our sponsors for ZAO-PALOOZA and ZAO-FESTIVAL, Scrappy Meals, and their revolutionary culinary application, Fridgie Smalls. Read on to discover how this innovative AR/VR solution is transforming kitchens around the world.

ZAO-CHELLA SPONSOR: Scrappy Meals

Transforming Culinary Education: The AR/VR Journey with Scrappy Meals

In the world of culinary arts, innovation is not just about the flavors and techniques but also about the intelligent integration of technology that can make learning more efficient, educational, and enjoyable. Enter Fridgie Smalls, a revolutionary AR/VR application by Scrappy Meals that is set to transform kitchens into dynamic culinary classrooms. This immersive augmented and virtual reality (AR/VR) experience allows users to learn from the comfort of their own homes, making the learning process more engaging and accessible.

A Stark Reality of Food Waste

Did you know that we waste one-third of all the food we produce globally? This issue is highlighted by the United Nations during the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic, underscoring the critical need for effective food management. In the US alone, 38% of the food supply was wasted in 2022. This represents a significant economic loss and a missed opportunity to address food scarcity and environmental sustainability.

The Need for Modern Culinary Education

The days when cooking skills were passed down from generation to generation at the family stove are waning. Today, fewer Americans cook meals at home—a trend exacerbated by busy lifestyles and a lack of cooking proficiency among the younger generations. The need for accessible culinary education has never been more apparent.

Fridgie Smalls: A Culinary Innovator

Scrappy Meals, led by founder Damon Versaggi, is at the forefront of addressing this gap through their Fridgie Smalls application. This app is not just another digital cookbook. It is an immersive experience that transforms your kitchen into a virtual cooking school. By leveraging
